ORDER OF COURT

As part of the Judiciary’s educational outreach mission, the Supreme Court participates in Courts in the Community (CIC) twice a year. The purpose of the program is to give students, first-hand, an opportunity to see how disputes are resolved by watching oral arguments. To that end, the Court travels to Colorado to hear oral arguments on location.

The Court has selected this case for oral argument at CIC to be held at The University of Colorado Law School in Boulder, Colorado on the morning of October 24, 2024.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED this case is set for oral argument at 9:15 a.m. at The University of Colorado Law School, Boulder, Colorado. Oral argument is limited to 30 minutes to a side.

Counsel must check in with a bailiff at least 15 minutes prior to oral argument. During check-in, counsel should advise the bailiff of how they wish to be addressed by the Court (Counsel, Counselor, Mr., Ms., Mx., etc.).

The court is not inclined to grant requests for continuance absent extraordinary circumstances. Any such request must be received no later than 7 days from the date of this order.

If counsel other than counsel who have filed written briefs are to argue this case, please file an entry of appearance within fourteen days of this order. Pro Hac Vice counsel will not be permitted to argue unless counsel has complied with C.R.C.P. 205.5(6).

Unless permitted by the Court, only one attorney per side may argue a case. A motion for more than one attorney to participate in oral argument must be filed within fourteen days of this order, provide the reason for additional participation, and state how the attorneys propose to split the allotted time. The Court will not extend the length of oral argument to accommodate participation of additional counsel.
